

The Poquoson Exchange Club members celebrated its 25th anniversary of the club at its annual Charter Night at the Langley AFB Officers Club on 26 January 2007. Over 35 members and spouses were attended the event, to include three of the original charter club members, Roy Bunders, Bill Sylvia, and Bob Speechley.

The highlight of evening was the award of the Book of Golden Deeds, presented this year to Dan Phillips of Poquoson. Each year, the Poquoson Exchange Club recognizes a Poquoson resident who has distinguished themselves in the community, and is a person who is chosen to support the community with their time, services, and support to help others in the community without ever expecting anything in return. Almost without exception, when awarded the Book of Golden Deeds, the recipients are honestly shocked with the recognition, as was Dan this year. Dan Phillips' contributions included numerous church and community projects, willingness and assistance to local residents, his dedicated efforts in the wake of Hurricane Isabel, and support to the Poquoson Museum. The award was presented by Poquoson Exchange Club President Raymond Nozynski.
